

Lancaster, CA | Founded in 1987

ABOUT

Antelope Valley Christian School is a non-denominational Christian school in Lancaster California grades K-12. The dedicated staff at AVCS works hard to prepare the new generations in becoming leaders not only in the workplace but in education and the church.

The school offers extracurricular activities such as Journalism Club, School plays, Key Club, Student Government and Community Service. AVCS also has a strong athletics department in which students can choose to participate in a number of sports such as basketball, volleyball and cross country to name a few.

LOCATION

Antelope Valley Christian School is located in the city of Lancaster in beautiful sunny southern California.

It is just an hour's drive away from Downtown Los Angeles and it borders the southwest border of the Greater Mohave Desert.

The city of Lancaster offers a wealth of fun activities for students including movie theaters, lots of varied restaurants, and many large shopping malls. On weekends students can take a train ride or a short drive to enjoy the exciting city of Los Angeles or Las Vegas.

CURRICULUM

AVCS offers a curriculum that is fully accredited and UC approved. Students in grades 7-12 are given diligent coursework that is structured to prepare them for college, including several classes, which are offered as Advanced Placement courses.

In addition to their coursework the students have opportunities to participate in academic competitions sponsored by the ACSI, including public speaking, creative writing, music, technology and dramatic presentations. 98% of AVCS students have been accepted to 4-year universities over the last 6 years.

QUICK FACTS

School Type

Private School (K-12)

Total Enrollment

385 students (35% international)

Student-Faculty Ratio

9:1

Accommodation

Dormitory

Mascot

Eagles