

Canyonville Christian Academy

ABOUT

Canyonville Christian Academy is a private high school nestled in the expansive mountains of Oregon. Founded in 1924, it is one of the oldest Christian boarding schools in the United States. CCA offers classes during the day for the local community and welcome students from over 57 countries. Students in grades 9-12 can stay in the schools safe and cozy boarding facilities. Classes offered at CCA are college preparatory caliber.

There are a number of trips planned to locations such as Ashland's Shakespearean Theatre and the Hult Center for the Performing Arts throughout the year. Graduates of the school have gone on to colleges including Tufts, UCLA, Rutgers and other prestigious institutions.

LOCATION

Canyonville Christian Academy is located in the historic town of Canyonville Oregon, not far from the California boarder and Grants Pass. The Academy is within walking distance of the local post office, banks and restaurants. Their are beautiful massive Redwood trees all over the campus and a beautiful cool creek runs right through the middle of the academy.

CURRICULUM

Canyonville Christian Academy has been honored twice by the ACSI in their Exemplary Schools program. CCA is fully accredited with the NAAS and offers AP and college prep courses. The small class sizes and having most of the faculty and staff living on the academies campus offers students every opportunity to learn and excel. As a boarding school with a international student body, CCA offers a full complement of ESL courses to assist those who may need additional English instruction.

The school also offers fine arts and general electives such as Choir, Commercial art/graphic design, and yearbook. CCA also had a cutting edge pre-professional program in internet marketing and search engine optimization (SEO) as well as other computer based courses to help students learn skills for the 21st
