ABOUT

St. Croix Lutheran High School is committed to providing their students with academic excellence but also in making sure they become exemplary Christians. The school is dedicated not only to the students education but also to their mental, emotional and social growth, so that when they move on from high school they are instilled with the courage and principles to be the best global citizens that they can be.

The size of the school offers many opportunities for students to enjoy. Students can take advantage of the schools athletic program and participate in sports such as tennis, cross country, lacrosse, dance and swim to name only a few. They can also participate in St. Croix's music, drama or fine arts programs.

LOCATION

St. Croix rests on an expansive 30 acres of land in the residential area of St. Paul, Minnesota. St. Paul, along with it's twin city Minneapolis, is the largest metropolitan area in the region and is a hub for culture and activities. Within walking distance of the campus are many varied shops and close by is the famous Mall of America.

St. Paul enjoys 4 distinct seasons and there are numerous opportunities for outdoor recreational activities throughout the year.

CURRICULUM

St. Croix offers a challenging academic program with high expectations. They prepare students for college and university acceptance and annually send them to some of the top schools in the country. Full support is available along the way at every step to ensure students are given the assistance they need in order succeed.

In addition to their rigorous academic curriculum, the school also offers students classes in Bible knowledge to instill in them the Christian principles that will stay with them through the course of their lives. With their small class sizes and the proud fact that 57% of their staff holds advance degrees, St. Croix is confident that each student will receive the capable attention they need to succeed.
