

Subiaco Academy.

ABOUT

The Subiaco Academy is a private boys-only school that instills in its students a sense of community and love of learning in the Benedictine tradition. They offer day classes and also have boarding facilities for international students. The academy is dedicated to helping students explore and develop their known and hidden talents.

Students can take advantage of the schools athletic department and participate in sports such as baseball, track and tennis to name a few. They can also participate in extracurricular clubs and activities including, Fishing Club, Order of the Blue Arrow, Benet Club and Archery club

LOCATION

Subiaco Academy is located on 1800 acres of farmland in the Arkansas River Valley in the American Midwest. This region of the country is especially friendly and very safe for students. The campus buildings are especially beautiful and are a local attraction.

The region boasts some of the finest lakes in the state offering numerous recreational activities. Nearby, the "tripeaks" offer wonderful hiking and views.

CURRICULUM

Offering the most up to date, dynamic curriculum, Subiaco Academy strives to teach its students the importance of academic excellence in conjunction with the teachings of the Lord. The academy is staffed by not only excellent lay teachers but also Benedictine monks of the Subiaco. The challenging and curriculum prepares students for college and university study while at the same time, the excellent resources and supportive staff ensure student success.

Graduates of Subiaco have gone on to some of the best universities in the world including, Berkeley College of Art and Design, California Institute of Technology, Arkansas State University, Cornell University, Johns Hopkins University and the United States Military Academy - West Point to name only a few

QUICK FACTS

School Type

Private Boy's High School (Grades9-12)

Total Enrollment

185students (35% international)

Student-Faculty Ratio

8:1

Accommodation

Dormitory

Mascot

Trojan