ABOUT

The Windsor School is a seven-year college preparatory secondary school located in Flushing serving students in grades 6 through 12. It is a private school known for English as a Second Language programs.[3] It is registered by the New York State Education Department, accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and a member of College Entrance Examination Board and the College Scholarship Service. Windsor School is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

LOCATION

The Windsor School is an independent, coeducational, middle and high school, located in the vibrant community of Flushing, New York. Queens is the easternmost and largest in area of the five boroughs of New York City, geographically adjacent to the borough of Brooklyn at the western end of Long Island.

CURRICULUM

We have a rigorous academic program and expect our students to take four years of mathematics and science in addition to social studies and English. Programs must be rounded out with electives, art or AP classes. Courses of study are updated and revised to meet the Learning Standards of New York State and the National Common Core.

Our modern facility is comfortable, quiet and conducive to learning. Small classes enhance the effectiveness of an experienced and dedicated staff. On site physical education consists of yoga, aerobics and table tennis. Our soccer team plays and practices at nearby Flushing Meadow Park. Our basketball program takes place at the Flushing Boys Club. We also use the National Tennis Center
