Charles Darwin University

Navitas English Darwin is an ideal stepping-stone to Charles Darwin University (CDU). Studying with us, students become integrated and familiar with the university, its facilities and the surrounding Darwin area.

Modern and spacious, CDU differs from bigger Australian universities offering a more personal relationship, where you can socialise on campus and even get to know professors.

From the Art Gallery, to the Chinese Gardens, CDU is big enough to explore yet small enough that you will never get lost. During your free time, the CDU gym and basketball courts located close to 'Student Square' provide a relaxed environment where students often have BBQs and relax together.

Study options at CDU

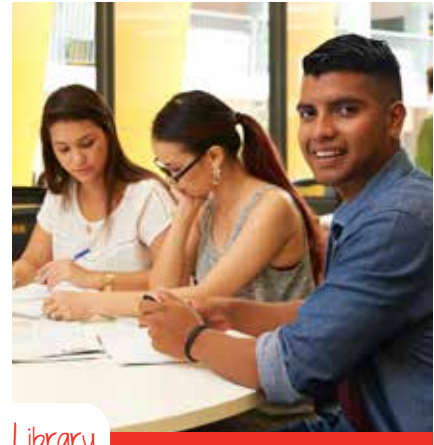

CDU offers more than 75 nationally recognised and accredited programs for international students.

A range of Masters and Bachelor programs have industry internships that give students the opportunity to develop work-ready skills in their professions during practical work placements with local employers.

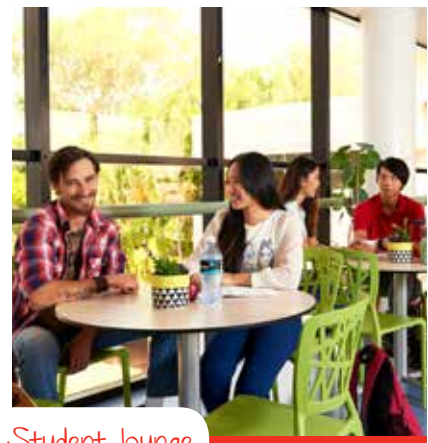

For more information about study opportunities at CDU visit cdu.edu.au/international

CDU FACT FILE

- Times Higher Education ranks CDU in the top 300 universities worldwide (THE: 2015-2016)
- CDU is ranked #48 in the Times Higher Education 100 Under 50 Rankings (THE: 2015-2016).
- A low student to staff ratio provides a more personalised and supportive teaching and learning environment.
- CDU is a dual-sector university, offering both Higher Education (HE) and Vocational Education and Training (VET) course.
- CDU boasts a diverse nationality mix with students from over 68 countries; international students make up 15% of the overall student cohort.
- Students who complete Academic English at the required level are eligible to transfer to CDU without an exit IELTS test.
